QMCG FUNDRAISING SILENT AUCTION

ITEM 1 - AK-52 AEROBATIC FLIGHT EXPERIENCE

Have you ever wondered what it's like to loop or barrel roll over the British countryside? Well, now is your chance! You'll take the passenger seat in an ex-military Russian plane capable of +7g's and -5 g's and 300mph. You'll also have the chance to fly it yourself as it has dual controls!

The Yak 52 aircraft was built in the former Eastern Bloc and trained the fighter pilots of the Warsaw Pact countries as a lead-in trainer to the MiG Jets. If it's not aerobatics you like, that's fine, you can stay the right way up and enjoy the beautiful sights.

Your flight will take place from the historic Battle of Britain airfield, North Weald. Your family and friends will be welcome to come and watch your flight experience. A café, toilets, and a children's playground are all available.

You must be in good health, less than 6ft 4 tall and weigh less than 15 stone. Flight to take place on a mutually agreed date.

Kindly donated by Mr Jonathan Windover. RESERVE PRICE - £100

ITEM 4 - GUIDED TOUR OF ORFORD NESS AND COBRA MIST, SUFFOLK

Enjoy a private tour for up to ten people to magical Orford Ness and the extraordinary Cobra Mist building in Suffolk.

You will travel by boat from Orford Quay, then transfer into two Land Rovers. Your first stop is the new colony of breeding seals, located where the lighthouse once stood. Next, enjoy a short drive to the Cobra Mist building, which is not open to the public. Built by the Americans during the Cold War, Cobra Mist was intended for long-range surveillance radar in Europe and Russia, though it was never fully operational. It later served for the transmission of the BBC World Service. The late Nicholas Gold brought the interior from Babcock, which still includes many original items. After the tour, enjoy coffee and brownies in the old BBC canteen.

Tour to take place on a mutually agreed date (weather dependent)

Donated by kind permission of the executors of the late Mr Nicholas Gold. RESERVE PRICE - £100
